MICHAEL PAUL TRAHAN died Dec. 27, 2009, at the age of 22. He was pursuing a bachelor's degree in musical education with a minor in jazz studies. He played trumpet in the UL Lafayette Symphony Orchestra, Wind Ensemble, Big Band and Pride of Acadiana Marching Band. Trahan taught private lessons and served as an instructor at area band camps. He also was a studio musician who recorded with local bands, such as Feufollet. He is survived by his parents, Monique Goutierrez Trahan and Paul Trahan, and his brother, JOSHUA RYAN TRAHAN, a sophomore at UL Lafayette.

DR. DEAN F. KEELEY died Feb. 11, 2010. As a U.S. Marine private first class in Iwo Jima, Keeley shielded two fellow Marines when a hand grenade exploded in their foxhole. After two years of recovery, he was honorably discharged as a fully disabled veteran. He also received a Purple Heart. Keeley graduated magna cum laude from the University of Illinois with a bachelor's degree in chemistry. He began teaching at USL after receiving a doctorate in chemistry from Florida State University in 1957. He received the UL Lafayette Foundation's Distinguished Professor Award in 1995. That same year, he was part of 50th anniversary ceremonies at the National Cathedral and the U.S. Marine Corps Memorial, which honors the 50,000 troops who served in Iwo Jima. Keeley collaborated with the U.S. Department of Energy on a 12-year project involving geopres-sured-geothermal energy. He also worked with physicists at the Acadiana Research Laboratory on a particle accelerator project. He was instrumental in developing a 3-D computer-based instruction and research facility in UL Lafayette's Hamilton Hall. Keeley retired in 2001. He is survived by his wife, Mary Ruth Altepetter; daughter, Mary Patricia; and brother, Thayne Robert.

DR. FRANS AMELINCKX died March 28, 2010. He was 78. A native of Belgium, he served in the Belgian Army during the Korean conflict. He and DR. CAROL BERNIECE CEDAR,

'87, '95, were married in Venezuela in 1959. They moved to the United States, where he earned a bachelor's degree in education from Northern State College and a master's degree and doctorate in French literature from the University of Iowa. He taught at the Universities of Iowa and Nebraska before becoming head of USL's Department of Romance Languages in 1983. He served as professor of modern languages and received the UL Lafayette Foundation's Distinguished Professor Award in 1989. He retired in 2002 and was named professor emeritus of Francophone Studies. Survivors include his wife, Carol, and three children: ALAN LEE AMELINCKX, '95, '02; Andréa Amelinckx; and ANDREW K. AMELINCKX, '93.

Alumni Directory Gets Update

Over the next few months, University of Louisiana at Lafayette alumni may receive postcards, e-mails or phone calls from Harris Connect. That's a company working with the UL Lafayette Alumni Association to update its alumni directory.

Dan Hare, the association's executive director, urged all alums to respond. "The directory is a valuable resource and its success depends on how many people participate. It just takes a few minutes to stay in touch," he said.
